What is the purpose and legal basis of our data processing?

Your data is processed for the purpose of the conclusion and execution of a contract. Pursuant to Art. 6 (1b) GDPR, the processing of your data is necessary for the conclusion and execution of our contract with you. In addition, pursuant to Art. 6 (1f) GDPR, the processing of your data is necessary for the protection of our legitimate interests that exist in connection with the fulfillment of the mutual obligations under the contract between us and you. If you have given your consent to this, your data is also processed for advertising and marketing purposes. You may opt out of the use for advertising and marketing purposes at any time.

What categories of data are processed by us?

We process the following categories of data: master data (e.g. name, address), communication data (e.g. phone number, email address), contract data (e.g. start and end date of the contract).

To whom do we transfer your data?

Access to your data is granted to the functions within our Company who need this access to fulfill our obligations. Where this is necessary for the Performance of the contract, we will transfer your data to Service Providers and partners who assist us in the fulfillment of our obligations to you and who have been selected and contracted by us also under aspects of data protection.

Is data transferred to a third country or an international Organization?

Your data will normally not be transferred to a country outside the EU. Service Providers in a third country employed within the framework of commissioned data processing are obligated to comply with the EU Standard of data protection.

For what period do we store your data?

After the expiration of the respective contract between us and you, we will verify after a period of three years whether we still need your data and whether statutory retention obligations pre-vent the deletion of your data.

What are your data protection rights?

You have the following rights pursuant to Art. 15 to 22 GDPR, if the necessary statutory requirements are met: Right to information, correction, deletion, limitation of the processing, and data portability. Moreover, Art. 13 (2b) in conjunction with Art. 21 GDPR provides you with the right to object to the data processing that is based on Art. 6 (1f) GDPR Art. 77 GDPR provides you with the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority, if you believe that the processing of your personal data is unlawful.

Information about your right to object to the processing of your data as provided in Art. 21 GDPR:

You may at any time file an objection to the processing of your personal data carried out in accordance with Art. 6 (1f) GDPR (data processing on the basis of the consideration of the parties' interests) on grounds relating to your specific Situation. If you file such objection, we will cease to process your personal data, unless we can furnish proof of compelling legitimate reasons for the data processing overriding your interests or the data processing is necessary to assert our legal Claims or to defend ourselves against legal Claims.

You may at any time file an objection to the processing of your personal data for advertising purposes. If you file such objection, we will cease to process your personal data for advertising purposes.

Send your objection by informal letter to the following address: Email: info@cws.dk
